

Italian Generals Who Participated in the Victories Over
Austria

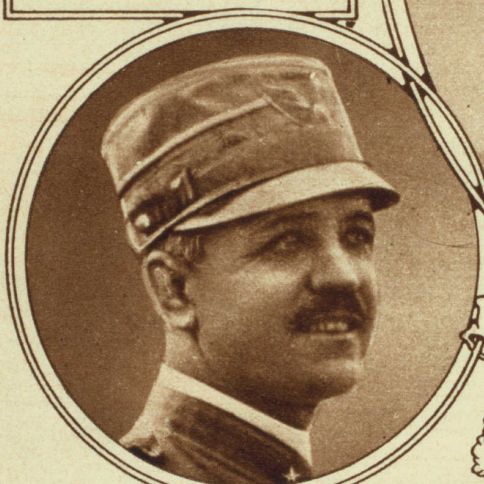

DUKE OF ABRUZZI,
commander of the largest fleet Italy has ever had in the Mediterranean.

DUKE OF AOSTA,
who has held important commands in the army during the war.

GEN. ARMANDO DIAZ,
Commander in Chief of the Italian armies in the two great victories.

GEN. BADOGLIO, next in importance to Diaz in the army and the chief figure in the armistice arrangements.

ADMIRAL THAON DI REVEL, Commander in Chief of the Italian Navy, with a record of successes.

GEN. LUIGI CADORNA, commander of the Italian armies until after the disaster of Caporetto.

GEN. PORRO, Chief of Staff of Italian Army during the offensive against the Austrians.

GEN. ZUPELLI,
Italian Minister of War, in which position he succeeded Alfieri in March, 1918.